WETS WANT MORE TIME IN INVESTIGATION

CAN'T GET ALL WITNESSES UP IN TIME LIMIT

DRYS NOW ARRANGING TO PRESENT THEIR ARRAY OF WITNESSES

SAY "WOMEN WILL HAVE RIGHT OF WAY" ON THEIR FIRST DAY

By PAUL R. MALLON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, April 7.—Extension of the senate prohibition investigation was demanded by the wets today to permit many of their witnesses to take the stand who might otherwise be prevented from testifying because of the time restriction.

Meantime the drys began arranging their array of witnesses for their turn to present evidence beginning next Monday and they announced that "women will have the right of way" on the first day.

Representing the farm, home, church, school, missionary societies and the political arena, they are coming from all states.

Mrs. Ella A. Boole, president of the W. C. T. U., and Mrs. Henry W. Peabody, chairman of the National Women's Law Enforcement committee, are already here. A joint committee with the Anti-Saloon League, W. C. T. U. and similar orders represented, will be in charge of the dry time.

"This question is so stupendous that it cannot possibly be touched in the six days alloted to us," Senator Walter E. Edge, republican, New Jersey, leader of the congressional wet bloc, told the United Press, announcing his purpose of seeking an extension.

"Only a small portion of our witnesses can be heard during our 24 hour day in court. We have scores of others who can give the committee helpful information in regard to conditions.

"Congress ought to have such information in considering legislation and I cannot conceive that the committee will adhere to its original intention and exclude our witnesses from the stand.

"It is like telling us that we can have an opportunity to present our case but we cannot offer our witnesses."

Frankly the wets are not exuberant over the testimony offered by Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Andrews and they intend to call four new witnesses today, District Attorney Emory Buckner of New York, Dr. William C. Woodward, secretary of the American Medical Association, Chicago; Judge Alfred F. Tolle of New York and another witness yet to be shown.

Edge said scores of witnesses were in town and ready to testify and that the biggest job of the wets was to select time for them. If the hearings were prolonged he could offer testimony for weeks, he declared.

The advent of George Brennan, candidate for the democratic senatorial nomination in Illinois and Representative Vare, republican, Pennsylvania, candidate for the republican senatorial nomination in Pennsylvania is not received with handclapping by the wets.

Edge promised that the hearings would be confined to the presentation of facts by witnesses cognizant of the situation in all parts of the country and he did not intend to permit the "manufacture of political propaganda before the committee," he said.

"We want evidence, not opinions," Edge said.

Although no decision has yet been reached, it is hinted that Brennan and Vare, who are running on wet platforms in their respective states, may be denied an opportunity to appear before the committee.

NO PROHIBITION ENFORCEMENT IN N. Y.

Washington, April 7—Prohibition enforcement has never yet been attempted in New York, Federal District Attorney Emory Buckner of that district told the senate prohibition committee today.

"I do not know whether prohibition could be enforced in New York," Buckner said. "Judicial procedure is such that it cannot be tried now."

It was a startling picture he painted of conditions in the metropolis. He charged that "fixers" were trafficking in justice openly in the federal building in New York.

"In the course of a year, at least 50,000 bartenders, peddlers, waiters and fixers pass through the corridors of that building," he added. "There is an air of collusion there, even in the civil parts of the building."

"What do you mean by fixers?" Senator Reed, democrat, Missouri, asked.

"I mean those that traffic in justice; those who hang around the corridors of the building and buy jurymen and with money influence the memory of witnesses."

The prosecutor for America's largest city said he had been informed that between $200,000 and $300,000 in bonds had been forfeited by bootleggers there. The bonding companies had never paid the money, he added, but the defendants had escaped. Further Buckner severely criticized the system whereby prohibition agents were promoted according to the number of arrests they made, whether they were good arrests or not.

"Such a system for the promotion of inefficiency cannot be equalled," Buckner said.

The committee held a whispered conference at this point and decided that night sessions should be held beginning tonight to permit the wets to present their case. The committee agreed that it would hold no afternoon session but resume at 7:30 P. M. to speed the hearings through.

"BILLION BOOTLEG INDUSTRY PICTURED"

Washington, April 7.—The "billion dollar bootleg industry" of New York, was pictured by Federal District Attorney Emory R. Buckner of New York before the senate beer hearings as pouring millions of gallons of liquor into the market, spreading simultaneously corruption, bribery and fraud.

Corrupt conditions, he charged, as existing in overburdened courts, and he asserted that prohibition could not be enforced in the great metropolitan district under him so long as bootleggers bribed juries.

Sixty million gallons of diverted alcohol a year found their way into the bootleg trade of New York, said Buckner, who estimated this as an increase of 50 per cent over a year ago. At the rate of $5 a quart for the bootlegged whisky, these 60,000,000 gallons eventually represented a business of the staggering total of $3,600,000,000, he estimated.

Industrial alcohol, he said, was poured in pipe lines from denaturing plants. Drug stores, he said, cheated in handling prescriptions involving drug store liquor and not all of this was pure.

He advocated strongly that federal agents be granted a living wage and the profession be made "respectable."

Grafters have become so efficient that the dry United States now exports liquor through bootleg channels to wet Canada, where the product was sold secretly to avoid payment of the Canadian liquor tax, he said.

Buckner said that under the law hours in the morning session of the only issue legitimate prescriptions for 240,000 gallons a year, but that 480,000,000 gallons were being withdrawn.

Buckner was on the stand two hours n the morning session of the committee and will resume tonight at 7:30 in a night session.

WOUNDED COP RETURNS FIRE OF 2 ROBBERS

LYING ON FLOOR HE SHOOTS DOWN PAIR OF CHICAGO BANDITS

ONE DIED A FEW HOURS LATER, OTHER IS QUICKLY CAPTURED

Chicago, April 7.—(UP)—Wounded before he could fire his own revolver, Patrolman Benjamin McCarthy shot it out early today with two robbers, whom he interrupted in the holdup of a soft drink parlor and when other officers came to his rescue they found McCarthy in command of the situation from his position on the floor.

McCarthy, firing from the floor, had wounded one of the robbers, John Devine, so seriously that he died a few hours later. The other robber, Arthur Donaldson, was wounded but will recover.

McCarthy was passing the soft drink place which also is headquarters for a labor union, when he heard shots from inside. He entered with drawn revolver only to be shot in the leg before he could fire his own weapon. He fell to the floor in great pain and from that position returned the fire. He shot both robbers and forced them to surrender their weapons, then held guard over them until help arrived. His own injuries were not serious but kept him from keeping his feet.

MUSSOLINI SHOT IN NOSE BY A WOMAN

ELDERLY LADY ATTACKED HIM THIS MORNING IN ROME

WOUND INFLICTED IS BELIEVED TO BE A SLIGHT ONE

Paris, April 7.—(UP)—Premier Benito Mussolini was shot in the nose by an elderly woman today as he emerged from a building in Rome, according to despatches received here. His wound is believed to be slight.

The premier maintained his composure and immediately gave orders to prevent public commotion as a result of the attempt against his life. A large crowd had gathered around the building to see the premier depart and the would-be assassin was among them.

Mussolini has been the object of would-be assassins' plots since October, 1922, when he organized and led the spectacular fascist march on Rome which unseated the existing government and placed Mussolini in office as premier.

Mussolini erected a fascist state. In the creation of his new government Mussolini found bitter opposition and in the early days the rise of fascism was marked with continued violence. Its enemies were attacked, slugged and beaten. They retaliated. Their headquarters and political clubs were raided and wrecked. The approved fascist manner of convincing a politician that opposition was futile, was to seize him, force a large dose of castor oil down his throat and then parade him through the streets.

Last autumn Mussolini was in the shadow of death from a plotter's bullet. He was scheduled to speak from the balcony of the Chigi Palace and on the morning of his appearance a former army officer engaged a room in a hotel across the square. A few hours before Mussolini appeared on a balcony in full view from the windows of the hotel room, police entered the hotel, arrested the officer, and seized an Austrian rifle equipped with telescopic sights. The officer confessed. He had been betrayed by a person to whom he had entrusted his secret.

The trial and virtual acquittal last month of Americus Dumini and four other fascists, charged with the murder in June, 1924, of the socialist deputy, Giacomo Matteotti, re-aroused the opposition clamor against Mussolini's repression.

Matteotti died while a captive in the automobile of the five fascists on the eve of a speech in the chamber of deputies wherein he had planned to launch a powerful attack against fascism.

Three of the defendants were sentenced to terms in prison which will expire in June and the other two were acquitted.

Mussolini's opponents outside of Italy predicted when the Matteotti verdicts were announced that they prove to have been the knell of fascism in Italy, but to his critics Mussolini has replied with a sweep of his hand indicating the changes in government he has wrought.

Since the Matteotti murder the opposition members of the chamber of deputies have refused to sit in the chamber, which passes laws at the orders of the premier.

OPPOSITION BLAMED FOR ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION

London, April 7.—An unconfirmed report circulated here today said that Premier Benito Mussolini of Italy had been wounded by a revolver bullet as he emerged from a building in Rome.

A crowd gathered to see the premier depart, according to the report and the bullet came from among the spectators.

Despite police efforts to control the anger of the fascists a crowd of youths gathered and marched on the newspaper office of the democratic Il Mondo, shouting protests against the opposition whom they blamed for the attempted assassination. The plant was slightly damaged by the youths' attack.

Mussolini had a public engagement today to open the international surgery congress in Rome.

RACE WITH DEATH ACROSS THE STATE

YOUNG ROBERT EISENMAN OF CHISHOLM DIED OF SPINAL MENINGITIS

Rochester, Minn., April 7.—(UP)—A race with death across the state failed early today when Robert Eisenman, 9, succumbed to spinal meningitis.

Three railroads co-operated in rushing a special train from his home in Chisholm, a distance of 410 miles, to Rochester. The running time was 8 hours and 45 minutes.

Dr. W. G. Eisenman ordered the special train Tuesday when Robert took a turn for the worse. Rushing the boy to Mayo clinic, he pleaded with half a dozen surgeons to save his life.

The train arrived at 5:45. Robert was in such a weakened condition that it was impossible to operate at the moment. He was given a serum discovered by Dr. E. C. Rosenow and rallied.

As preparations were made for the operation at the base of the brain the boy died at 12:50 this morning.

INANCIALLY MRS. MAUDE WRIGHT OF N. Y. IS "BROKE"

Chicago, April 7.—(UP) — With eviction from the exclusive Southmoor hotel staring her in the face, Maude Miriam Noel Wright, wife of the celebrated architect, today prepared to sell her valuable collection of antques and oriental prints.

"I have no money," she said. "I have received only $650 from my husband since last July. I owe the hotel $400. Financially I am at the end of my rope."

In the collection owned by Mrs. Wright are valuable Japanese prints valued by her at $15,000, rare bits of jade, shawls, fans, inlaid furniture and oriental trinkets.

"My husband gave me these when I meant something to him," she said. "Though I mean nothing to him now I still have a sentimental attachment for them. It sickens me to have to dispose of them."

In discussing her pending separation maintenance suit Mrs. Wright said: "I am going to fight, I shall never give him an absolute decree."

BARMAID AND FARMER IN A ROMANCE

Minneapolis, April 7.—(UP)—Another chapter was written today in the romance of Anita Cummings, Minneapolis barmaid, and August Bergman, Fosston, Minn., farmer.

The pair showed up for Miss Cummings' vagrancy hearing in municipal court and announced that they had been married.

Bergman became acquainted with the girl over a bottle of pop and proposed. They soon became engaged and Bergman deeded her his farm, gave her a diamond, $650 in cash and use of his automobile.

Police then stepped in and Detective Joseph Beery arrested the girl and her "boy friend," Leo Martin. Bergman consented to the arrests thinking he had been duped. Experiencing a change of heart he bailed out the girl and she became his bride.

Detective Beery was out of town today so the vagrancy trial was postponed.

STYLISH STOUT OUT SIZES TRADE MARK

Special Shoes for Stout Women

By "Special" we don't mean "doctor" or corrective shoes.

What we are talking about are "Stylish Stout Outsizes"; beautiful shoes designed expressly for stout womens wear.

You know how much superior a "Stylish Stout" garment is to the "large size" in a regular model.

The same holds true in footwear: "Stylish Stouts" are fashioned on lasts and patterns adapted to the needs of stout women. They fit better, feel more comfortable, and look much narrower than wide widths in ordinary shoes.

LAST MONTHLY MEETING

Famous Madame Bourskaya to Replace Madame Cutter in Recital April 25th

The last of the monthly meetings of the Musical club will be held this Saturday at the First Congregational church, when John Seaman Garns will read.

Notice has been received from Harry Culbertson that he is sending the famous Madame Bourskaya in place of Madame Cutter who could not get here on account of the storm. Under ordinary circumstances she would be out of reach for financial reasons, but a happy arrangement has made it possible for the club to have her. She will be here on April 25 at the Park theatre. Notice is given this far ahead so that those who wish to hear her may reserve the date. Those who bought tickets for the Cutter recital may use them for this later recital.

SEEK ABSOLUTELY FEARLESS BURGLAR, GENTLEMANLY TOO

New York, April 7.—(UP)—The largest force of police ever assigned to the borough of Queen's has patrolled the streets there for the last 24 hours in a vain effort to find trace of the "Radio Raffles," described as "an absolutely fearless, gentlemanly burglar." The robber, who is credited with the theft of scores of radio sets and jewelry within recent weeks has become a killer. Patrolman Arthur Kenny, one of the four policemen shot by the burglar in his night prowling, is dead from wounds sustained on March 25.

The other wounded patrolmen are Jason Beigler, Frank Donnelly and Arthur McCarthy.

In each shooting the burglar, who was soft spoken and well dressed, disarmed the suspicion of the officer before firing a bullet.

BELIEVED LOST IN THE MOUNTAINS

Boise, Idaho, April 7.—(UP)—Searching parties set out today to hunt for Franklin Rose, pilot of the first northbound plane on the new Elko-Boise-Pasco route who is believed lost in the mountains of northern Nevada.

Rose left Elko at 2:55 p. m. Tuesday and was forced to land at Deep Creek, Nev., because of engine trouble. After resuming his flight nothing has been heard from him.

WHAT MY NEIGHBOR SAYS

Is of Interest to Brainerd Folks

When one has had the misfortune to suffer from backache, headaches, dizziness, urinary disorders and other kidney ills—and has found relief from all this sickness and suffering, that person's advice is of untold value to friends and neighbors. The following case is only one of many thousands, but it is that of a Brainerd resident. Who could ask for a better example?

Peter Paulson, 402 Oak St., W., says: "I slipped and wrenched my back. For several days I was all in and could hardly take care of my work. My kidneys acted too frequently and I had no ambition to do anything. I read about Doan's Pills and was led to try them. They soon relieved me."

A FEW YEARS LATER Mr. Paulson added: "Doan's Pills cured me of kidney trouble. I have had no return of the complaint since."

MODERNISTS WIN IN TOWN ELECTION

VIRGIN BIRTH OF CHRIST ISSUE AT CLARENCE, MO.

Clarence, Mo., April 7.—(UP) — Modernists elected their candidate, J. C. Maupin, in the mayoralty election yesterday in which the virgin birth of Christ was an issue.

The fundamentalist candidate, L. J. Peterman, drew only 155 votes to his opponent's 365.

Maupin, formerly a Baptist minister, aroused intense feeling when he announced during the campaign that he was a modernist.

The election was one of the most fiercely contested the town has ever seen. Peterman, a retired farmer, was advanced because of his conservative, fundamentalist views. Maupin first drew criticism when, as a student in William Jewell College, Liberty, Mo., he led a movement to retain Dr. A. Wakefield Straten, removed because of his too liberal views.

ST. MARY'S GUILD AUSPICES

Open Meeting of Guild at Rectory of Episcopal Church Thursday Evening

Rev. Wellington K. Boyle of Cass Lake, will be the guest of honor at the special open meeting of St. Mary's Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church, which will be held tomorrow evening, Thursday, April, 8th at the rectory of the church.

The Protestant Episcopal church does some of the outstanding missionary work among the Chippewa Indians in the northern part of the state, which comprises the diocese of Duluth in the Episcopal church. Rev. Boyle is the general missionary or advisor to the clergy in this work. He is preeminently fitted for this position as he is himself a three-quarter Chippewa Indian. He is an outstanding leader among the Indians as he has the understanding and sympathy of them while combined with this is his ability to interpret the Indians to the white people. He is one of the most promising young clergy of the Episcopal church with a splendid educational and cultural background, a graduate in theology of the Seabudy Divinity school of Faribault, Minnesota.

All of the members and friends of St. Paul's Episcopal church are heartily invited to this open meeting of St. Mary's Guild at the rectory, Thursday evening, at 8 o'clock. At this meeting Rev. Boyle will speak on Indian life and its advancement. The usual silver offering will be taken but no appeal will be made for money. Following this informal talk a social hour will take place and refreshments will be served.

Next to your first drive at the wheel of a New-Day Jewett itself—the most convincing experience in motoring is trying to follow this "New-Day" car through traffic in any other kind of automobile.

There's a big difference, of course. Driving the New-Day Jewett Six your progress is so rapid, so certain and safe that you do not realize you are making exceptional time or driving exceptionally well.

But the moment you try to duplicate this "New-Day" performance in some other car—you realize instantly and completely what an extraordinary car the New-Day Jewett really is.

The difference between the New-Day Jewett and all other cars is not a difference in size or in price—but a difference in design. Cars may cost three times as much as the New-Day Jewett—or be three times as large—and yet they simply cannot negotiate traffic or cope with modern driving conditions as easily or surely or safely as this remarkable "New-Day" car.

An actual demonstration—with you at the wheel—will quickly prove the many exclusive superiorities of this truly remarkable car. Since it will cost you nothing—and place you under no obligation—won't you let us arrange such a drive soon?

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 7, 1926

TO ADVERTISE MINNESOTA

WE are glad to see that a widespread advertising and publicity campaign to bring tourists and land buyers to Minnesota has been formulated by the Ten Thousand Lakes of Minnesota Association.

Leading national magazines and newspapers of the country will be used as the advertising medium. Frank S. Gold, Minneapolis, has been named chairman of the financial campaign.

Last year the tourist business left $60,000,000 in the state, said Mr. Gold. In tourist business Minnesota was exceeded only by Florida and California. Mr. Gold is convinced that this year should bring the greatest tourist trade in the history of the state.

It is fine to see Minnesota "step out" and do something in the publicity line to counteract some of the newly developed eastern propaganda. Down in Florida, as Dr. A. F. Groves wrote THE DISPATCH, an organized movement is under way in St. Petersburg territory to switch a lot of the Florida business to Maine and Massachusetts. In response to this movement, prices of ocean properties in the states mentioned are on the upgrade.

Minnesota cannot hope to blush unseen like the modest violet and expect a tourist or land movement to head this way. Paid publicity is required and with a chairman like Gold at the head of the thing, the money will be raised. Governor Christianson will issue a proclamation announcing the campaign.

WRESTLING WITH FORM 1040 A

CAPTAIN WILLIAM H. FAWCETT after experiences on three or four continents in war time and peace times, tossed the sponge in the ring the other day when he met up with Form 1040 A, an interesting document composed and copyrighted by the United States. Others have encountered the same difficulties the Captain experienced, only they were unable to give it so much descriptive language, they confined their observations and remarks to short expletives.

Here's what the Captain said: "After deducting Item 5 minus Item 9, from Item 10, minus Items 11, 12 and 13; getting the least common multiple of Items p, q, r, s and t before getting the square root of Items 18, 19 and 20 and trying to shoot a seven on the first pass, I thought I was through income-taxing for the year.

"But when the red-headed wife reminded me that it was also necessary to add the sum of the square of two sides of my rural free delivery box number to the least common denominator of Items 31, 32 and 33, I hurled my demented body into the teeth of the manure spreader." Quick action by farm visitors saved his remains for the tax-collector.

WINTER FISHING

A HUE and cry is being raised against winter fishing. According to our notion, winter fishing, when carried on legally, is a higher test of a man's skill than summer fishing. Many men in this section find time to do a little winter fishing, but cannot indulge in the sport in summer time when business keeps them tied to the counter in town. We hope the question will be studied well before any radical steps are taken.

The usual fish caught in our section are crappies and pickerel. Few, if any bass or pike are taken. So far as known the average catch of a sportsman in our lake region, covering the whole season, does not exceed ten fish. This figure was given us by a man who has studied the situation.

THE largest muskrat farm in the Dominion of Canada will be established at Swan Lake, forty miles northwest of Quesnel, B. C., according to J. E. McFarlane, representative of the Musquash Farms, Ltd. Last fall his company acquired 8,159 acres of low lying ground surrounding Swan Lake, also taking in the adjoining meadows and streams, already dotted with numerous muskrat and beaver houses and which have given a fair living to a number of trappers for some years.

JOE BULLET BUSH is being featured. The News Weekly of the screen world showed Bush in company with Walter Johnson and Stan Coveleskie at the Senators' training camp at Tampa, Florida. THE DISPATCH has also received from E. W. Kaley of Florida, the sports page of the Tampa Tribune, giving a large picture of the three musketeers, Bush, Johnson and Coveleskie.

A HUNDRED years ago the Monroe doctrine and its workings was under consideration by Congress. There was a scheduled conference of South American nations at Panama and the idea of U. S. representation was considered and no doubt some one brought up the "isolation" of the United States and urged attendance.

WE guess American railways have grown tired of having motorists bump their trains at crossings. A uniform law in all 48 states in the union imposing $50 fines and revoking the licenses of motorists who drive recklessly over railroad grade-crossings has been proposed by the American Railway association.

SERRETARY HOOVER recommends a more rigid examination of applicants for automobile drivers' licenses. This will do much to hold traffic accidents to a minimum. We believe there should be some kind of an examination of all drivers, commercial or otherwise, and that eyesight especially should be tested.

THE University of Minnesota's forest station at Cloquet will have furnished 41,000 trees to co-operative windbreak demonstrators of the state by the end of the approaching planting season, says Parker Anderson, forestry specialist with the agricultural extension service of the university.

UPWARDS of 700 boys and girls will invade University Farm on March 29 for the annual boys' and girls' short course, according to T. A. Erickson, state director of boys' and girls' club work.

PLANS for the pollution survey of the Mississippi river in Minnesota and Wisconsin are complete. Work will be started on the reports to be submitted to the legislatures of the two states.

PLANS for a filtration plant to be constructed at St. Cloud are to be submitted soon by Louis P. Wolff, consulting engineer, according to a proposal approved by the city commission.

"SOME WILD NOTIONS I HAVE KNOWN"

By the REV. ROY L. SMITH, D. D.
Pastor Simpson M. E. Church, Minneapolis

"BORN WITH A SILVER SPOON IN HIS MOUTH"

No child was ever so born. We are only born with opportunities.

God surrounds us with an environment richly stocked with golden opportunities. But we have to choose.

No singer ever sang without learning how. No architect ever drew a straight line or a graceful curve without practice. No organist ever won harmony from his keys without study.

And the singer who sang had to take time from play for practice. And the architect who drew the straight line and the graceful curve had to draw many a crooked and ungraceful line before he established mastery over his awkward fingers and unruly muscles. And the organist practiced finger exercises for hundreds of hours before he ever played the Widor symphonies.

Our American pioneers provided richly for the education of our youth by building school houses all over the land. But no youth was ever made great or useful because his grandfather built a school house.

You can drive a boy to school but you can't make him learn.

No girl was ever born with an education. She may have been born with a desire for one, but having the desire she had to satisfy that desire with hard work and diligent application.

No boy was ever born with ability. He may have been born with talent, but he had to cultivate the ability.

God never forces his favors on any man. He places them within our reach, and if we die of starvation because we would not reach, God never allows his angels to do for us what we could do for ourselves.

GYPSIES TO ELECT NEW KING

GATHER AT DETROIT, MICHIGAN, FOR IMPORTANT EVENT

By FOSTER EATON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Detroit, April 7.—In accordance with their own quaint customs, Gypsy delegates from all over the United States are scheduled to meet in national convention here May 1, to elect a new "king" of Romany Land.

For the venerable King Steve John, who had guided wisely the destinies of a "nation" for nearly a quarter of a century, passed to his reward on February 26, following a stroke of apoplexy at the "palace" here.

Since then, though his estimated 50,000 subjects have been in official mourning, an empty "throne" has beckoned candidates from other cities and from Detroit, and a mythical "crown" has hung unclaimed on the bare "palace" wall.

The exact method of choosing a successor to the late King John is an undisclosed Romany secret. Election by ballot, it is understood, is not the way to the "throne."

One of the late monarch's sons is authority for the statement that final selection will be by agreement among supporters of rival candidates. While all are said to be equally eligible, the successful candidate will represent the wishes of the majority, the son said.

Duties of the "king"—which entitle the monarch to an unnamed salary and to national authority for life — involve periodic "swings around the circuit" to administer justice among outlying gypsy tribes.

Although many of the American gypsies are citizens of the country, by custom they submit to the tribal rule of the king, who settles disputes in person whenever possible without burdening the established courts.

No one yet knows who will be the new king, the son said. The House of John, which includes the late king's queen, Marie Theresa, their seven sons and five daughters, are understood to favor Prince Bob John, one of the seven sons. (King John himself was said to have been a seventh son of a seventh son).

But it so happens that Steve Miller, husband of one of the late king's daughters, also aspires to the throne, and reports from other cities, reaching here since King John died, indicate there will be many other aspirants.

The conclave, it is said, will convene at the palace of the late king, at 264 East Elizabeth Street, Detroit. The structure is a single frame house of seven rooms, almost wholly devoid of interior furnishings.

Although King John left an estate estimated at more than $100,000, he maintained his home and court at the squalid East Elizabeth Street residence.

Street Trades Act Case

Minneapolis—The first attempt of the board of education to obtain a conviction under the Street Trades act has failed. An 11 year old boy, charged with violation of the act, was freed by the jury after half an hour's deliberation. He was alleged to have obtained a permit by stating he was 12 years old.

"Romola," which is Henry King's production of the famous novel by George Eliot, is coming to the Lyceum theatre on Thursday and Friday.

Hail "Irene" as Colleen Moore's Ace Production

There is little doubt that "Irene" is the big picture from Colleen Moore this season.

Everybody who has seen the film thinks so—even Colleen! And she's her own harshest critic!

Speaking about the gorgeous gowns worn in "Irene," Colleen said:

"Aren't they wonderful? They are more like dream clothes than real silk and lace creations."

Everybody is talking about "Irene," which comes to the New Park theatre this week end, and is the first offering of F. & R's. "Greater Movie Week.'

"A Woman of the World"

The surprising feature of Pola Negri's latest starring vehicle, "A Woman of the World," which is now showing at the Lyceum, is not that it is a stirring, dramatic, wholly modern story with a rural, American setting, but the fact that it reveals the fascinating, emotional actress as a comedienne of considerable deftness and ability.

DE MOLAY AND FRIENDS GUESTS

Entertained at Party Given in Their Honor at Rectory of St. Paul's Episcopal Church

REV. ROBERT J. LONG HOST

Assisting Host in Dining Room Were Mesdames Parker, Fleming, Dunham and Hiller

The members of the Roosevelt chapter, Order of DeMolay, together with their lady friends, were entertained at a party given in their honor at the rectory of the St. Paul's Episcopal church, the host for the evening being Rev. Robert James Long, pastor of the church.

In the receiving line were Rev. Long, Mrs. F. S. Parker, Mrs. A. J. Ellison, Herman Birchacek, and Ellis King, representing the local chapter of DeMolay. Assisting the host in the dining room were Mrs. F. S. Parker, Mrs. W. A. Fleming, Mrs. B. E. Dunham, and Mrs. W. R. Hiller.

The evening was most pleasantly spent in entertainment consisting of music, games, and dancing. Mrs. Edward J. Egan was in charge of the entertainment assisted by members of the advisory council of the chapter, and their wives, G. F. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Anderson, and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Forsberg.

The program of music included the singing of a group of songs by Miss Lois Chadbourne, accompanied by Miss Winnifred Spencer, and music by Miss Lillian Irwin, assisted by John Ellison. The ushers were Earl Fuller, Dale Sanders and Alex Nelson.

The decorations in the dining room carried out a color scheme of spring, with a large basket of jonquils on the table, the buffet banked with white carnations, the serving table set with white sweet peas, and the cabinets banked with white potted Easter lilies. The whole was entirely lighted with yellow candles. The library, where the guests were received, was decorated in red and white, having potted palms and ferns with red roses and potted hydrangeas. The reception hall and living rooms were set with red tulips and Easter lilies with potted ferns.

HEDDA HOYT TALKS ABOUT THINGS THAT INTEREST THE BUSY WOMAN OF 1926

MILLINERY

New York, April 7.—(UP)—The Spanish Sailor, not the seafaring kind we read about in books, for we are referring to millinery is sponsored by Agnes who is one of the foremost designers in Paris. The sailor is made of Picot straw and has a medium wide brim and medium high crown with a cocarde of coque feathers or multi-colored aigrettes at the side back. The hat is worn titled a bit over the right eye.

The tam shape of straw is the newest thing in New York. Usually there is a tiny brim effect over the eyes and the crown of straw drapes to one side where a cluster of stubby burnt ostrich of matching color is used as a brim. In many cases there is no trimming whatever save the ribbon band. Again, there may be a a flat-fitting bandeau which is cut rather wide and fits the forehead and this may be composed of several layers of colored silk ribbon or satin banding. The tam portion in this case is rather small.

Draped crowns appear on many of the new wide-brimmed straw models The draping which covers the crown may be of satin, faille or velvet. Occasionally the drape suggests the tam crown effect.

Hair braid hats with large sized brims will be popular this summer. Some of the newer straws of this type have gold or silver thread running through the straw and this gives a very dressy appearance to the hat. A lovely soft blue hair braid shape has silver threads glimmering through the blue. It is piped about the brim in narrow silver ribbon and has a pastel rose of huge size appliqued flat on the side of the upper brim. This hat is an example of many other summer models of various color combinations.

Large hats are invariably drooping as to brim. The underbrim of some smart models is faced in matching velvet. It is doubtful whether larger hats will make their formal appearance until long after Easter.

Small hats remain the favorites for sports wear for spring and summer. They will also have many followers for street wear since most women are loath to give them up owing to their becomingness and to their snugness.

Pottery Arithmetic

In the great pottery industry of Staffordshire, England, a "dozen" may be any number from 1 to 72. All plates are 12 to the dozen, but cups and saucers are 36 and other small wares 18, 24, 36 up to 72, for some purposes. This eccentric arithmetic originated in a desire to simplify the payment of the oven men.

SCHOOL BOARD SPECIAL SESSION

Heard Report of Wm. B. Ittner, School Architect of St. Louis, on Proposed Buildings

THREE SITES CONSIDERED

Architect Gives Estimates of Costs For Building And Equipment on Each Site

The school board met in special session last evening to hear the report of Wm. B. Ittner, of St. Louis, on the proposed construction of a new high school in this city. The meeting took up a consideration of the matter until after midnight, and adjourned without taking any action.

Mr. Ittner had been requested some time ago to prepare a sketch of a new school on each of three proposed sites, one being the present high school site, one the Fifth street site near the court house, and the other being the Kingwood street site. He had a report ready, which was read to the board, and which formed the basis of the discussion.

The meeting followed a decision at the regular meeting on Monday night, when a communication was read from Mr. Ittner relative to the matter, and led to the calling of the special meeting. All members were present.

MUSSOLINI SHOT IN NOSE BY A WOMAN

wounded by a woman 70 years old today as he left the "Piazza Campidoglio," where he had addressed the congress of the International Surgeon's association.

The bullet penetrated the cartilage of the premier's nose.

Leaping from the crowd, which had gathered to see the premier depart, the woman fired at short range. The crowd surged forward to seize her, but she was saved from summary punishment and was placed in jail.

The attempted assassination occurred at the summit of the famous Capitoline Hill, where the municipal palaces are situated on the scene of Rome's greatest glories. Mussolini was passing through an applauding crowd when the woman fired. The premier gave detailed instructions for preserving public order before seeking medical aid.

The would-be assassin gave her name as Violet Gibson and her age as 62.

She said she was of Irish nationality. The woman confessed to the shooting.

HON. VIOLET GIBSON SHOT AT MUSSOLINI

Rome, April 7.—The Honorable Violet Gibson, daughter of the late Lord Ashburne, who shot Premier Mussolini of Italy today in an attempt to assassinate him, was formerly an inmate of an insane asylum in England, the Honorable Constance Gibson, her sister, said today.

Rome, April 7.—Premier Mussolini of Italy was wounded slightly today when Violet Gibson, said to be the daughter of an Irish peer, suddenly drew from her handbag a small revolver and fired one shot at him at close range as he was leaving the capitol.

The bullet, according to the official communique, perforated the nostrils and the wound was in no way serious.

The woman who was immediately seized by the police and placed under arrest, confessed she had attempted the assassination.

It is understood she is the daughter of the late Lord Ashburne, former lord chancellor of Ireland.

Britain will express sympathy to the Italian government and the British ambassador in Rome will convey regret of the British people that a British woman committed the crime.

Mussolini had just completed his address of welcome to 600 delegates gathered for the International Surgery congress at the capitol. He was walking to his waiting automobile when the woman, who was standing in the crowd which was gathered to catch a glimpse of the premier, fired one shot point blank.

Mussolini was quickly taken back into the capitol where the wound was dressed and he then went back to the foreign office. News of the demonstration spread rapidly and there were extemporaneous gatherings throughout the streets accompanied by such cries as "Duce is safe, long live the duce." Some of those in the marching crowds became aroused when identity of the would-be assassin was made known while others considered her merely as a crank.

Services of thanksgiving were subjected for many churches tonight.

It was announced Mussolini did not intend to change his plans to visit Tripoli or to postpone his trip trip despite the wound.

JOHN WEISMULLER TASTES DEFEAT IN RACE

THIRD DAY OF MEET BRINGS MANY UPSETS

CINCINNATI Y. M. C. A. FAR IN LEAD AT CHICAGO TOURNAMENT

ITS RELAY QUARTET DOWNS 8 OF WORLD'S GREATEST SWIMMERS

By BERT M. DENBY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Chicago, April 7.—The third day of the National A. A. U. swimming, diving and polo championships dawns with three world records already broken, Johnny Weismuller, the "incomparable," having tasted of defeat, and the Cincinnati Y. M. C. A. far in the lead in number of points.

The relay quartet from Cincinnati went out last night and downed eight of the world's greatest swimmers to win the relay in the new record time of 3:38 which is :01.6 seconds better than the former record held by the I. A. C.

A few moments later another record went up when Miss Ethel Lackie stroked her way to a new world's record in the 50 yard free style. Her time was :27.6, bettering the old mark by 2-5 second. Corinne Condon of Omaha held the old record.

The third new record went to a woman when Agnes Geraghty of the Women's Swimming association, New York, covered the 50 yard breast stroke distance in :36 to better the old mark by the big margin of 3.6 seconds.

The relay brought out the finest swimming of the meet.

Johnny Weismuller left a sick bed in a vain effort to bring the I. A. C. up in the running with a victory.

From start to finish the race was a duel between the C. A. A. and I. A. C. of Chicago and the Cincinnati boys. Lap after lap the contestants went neck and neck. But with Weismuller swimming in the anchor position things looked rather black for all concerned but the I. A. C., until a boy named Walter Laufer forgot there was such a man as Weismuller in the race.

Laufer and Weismuller got away on the last 100 at about the same time and the crowd settled back to watch Johnny sail in his old style, far in front.

Johnny sailed but while he was doing his sailing Laufer kept on even terms and just before they reached the finish the Cincinnati boy put on a final burst and flashed three feet in front. The crowd was still for a moment, apparently startled at what had happened, but it recovered quickly with a rousing cheer.

The closest race of the evening came in the 50 yards men free style with four men finishing in what looked like a dead heat. The judge finally gave the victory to Phil Daubenspeck of Venice, Cal., Ralph Breyer, I. A. C., was second, and Laufer, third.

Al White, Olympic club, San Francisco, had little trouble in defending his low diving board crown and Dave Fall of Stanford University, took second place.

Erich Rademacher and Gustav Froelich, German swimmers, gave exhibitions, but neither endangered any records. Helen Meany, New York woman's champion diver, also gave an exhibition.

For 10 rounds and on into the 11th Tommy battered Shuffle almost at will. Three times Shuffle hit the canvas in the 11th and he showed the real gameness that it takes to make a fighter by coming back for more.

Finally Referee Eddie Davis stopped the uneven contest.

SPRING STYLES IN GOLFING

GOLF SHOW UNDER COVER SHOWS CLUBS, SHOES, TOGS, MAGAZINES

Chicago, April 7.—(UP)—Spring styles in golfing came to Chicago today under cover.

With the streets piled high with snow and heavy overcoats in vogue outside, the National Golf & Country club show was under way in an enclosed arena. Everything in the golfing world is on exhibit.

Of principal interest to the golfing fans is the recovering process for worn out golf balls. Fans are wont to stand about the booth throughout the day and watch favorite "sailers" which have been ripped to pieces from lusty hooks, made into sparkling white championship calibre.

No innovations are offered for the golfing fan this year.

Clubs, shoes, golfing togs and magazines are on exhibit for the fans.

Golf matches and tricks will feature the exhibit of the show the remainder of the week.

REVIEWING PITTSBURGH PIRATES

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, April 7.—When the Pittsburgh Pirates won the National league pennant last season and made a great display of courage in beating the Washington Senators in the world's series, the opinion was expressed freely that it was a club that looked good for a long run of success.

Compared to the opposition the team faced in a hard fight for the pennant and with the benefit of added confidence and increased experience, it looked every bit the championship club and a good prospect for at least one more championship.

But the opinion of many smart baseball men, if it has not actually been reversed has weakened some in support of the team and since the Giants have been improved there is more than a scattered belief that the Pirates will have to fight their heads off to get into more world's series money.

You can ask many competent critics, players and managers, what is the matter with the Pirates, if anything, and you invariably will be told, "I don't like the right side of that infield."

There are three great players on the Pirate club—Glenn Wright, Kiki Cuyler and Pie Traynor. May Carey was one of the best last year but he is just recovering from a serious illness and he is at the age when ball players cannot be expected reasonably to improve. Wright, Cuyler and Traynor are just getting their real start.

With Charley Grantham on first base and Eddie Moore at second last season, the right side of the infield did not live up to championship class and as far as is known to date these most important positions have not been strengthened.

In Stuffy McInnis and Johnny Rawlings, the club has utility men who are about the best money players in baseball but neither can be expected to go through a hard season. McInnis is given the credit by many smart baseball men for putting the heart in the club that enabled it to come from behind and win the world's series when everything seemed lost.

The team also has a highly touted rookie in Hal Ryne, from the San Francisco Pacific Coast league club, for reserve duty at second base and shortstop and he may deliver at second.

When the weak side of the infield is being discussed the question always comes up, "If it is so bad, why did the team win last year?"

The Pirates were successful in 1925 not only because it was a good, hustling young ball club but because of the collapse from injuries of its most formidable opponent, the New York Giants. If the Giants do not have the bad breaks this season, the Pirates will have to play better to win.

The left side of the infield is the strongest in baseball. There is no better third baseman than Pie Traynor and Glenn Wright is the best shortstop in baseball. They are the greatest pair developed in a decade and the whole works of the defense.

MINNESOTA'S 1926 CROP OF TROUT LARGE

EXCEEDS ALL THE PREVIOUS HATCHES, SAYS THADDEUS SURBER

LATTER IS SUPERINTENDENT OF FISH PPROPAGATION AT ST. PAUL

St. Paul, April 7.—(UP)—Minnesota's 1926 crop of trout exceeds all previous hatches, according to Thaddeus Surber, superintendent of fish propagation.

The state will have about 3,000,000 trout fry to distribute between now and June 1.

The last of the hatch was out today, about 200,000 rainbow eggs having been hatched in the last few days. These were propagated at the St. Paul hatchery below the Indian mounds.

There are about 2,000,000 brook trout, some Lochleven and a lot of brown trout thriving on a mulch of fresh beef liver every day at the hatchery. Oliver Mix, foreman, and Edward Sadowski and William Christianson are caring for the hatch.

Arrangements were made last fall for the purchase of 1,000,000 trout eggs from a Wisconsin hatchery on the St. Croix Falls, but the eggs have not yet been delivered. Plans of the propagation department of the game and fish department call for intensive development of rainbow in Minnesota.

JAKE SCHAEFER LEADS CUEISTS

In Averages He Is Even Superior to His Father.

The leading billiard player in the world at present is Jake Schaefer; that is, billiards as American, Spanish, Japanese, German and French play it. Young Jake was asked whether he is a better player than his famous father was. He shook his head—not in negation, but to signify he didn't know. "Hard to say," he interjected. "I never saw him play a great deal of billiards."

"The answer to that," offered Maurice Daly, who was standing by, "is in the averages. Young Jake has made better ones than his father ever did."

Young Jake plays the same flexible, delicate stroke for which his sire was noted, plays the ball just as close and has a touch equally exquisite and light. He plays the same system, yet is more like Frank Ives than his father was, which is to say he studies his shots more carefully. The wizard was more likely to be careless.

There was a don't-give-a-darnness about the elder Schaefer, such was his confidence in his execution to make the next shot, and the younger Jake is more accurate in landing on the second ball. He, like Ives, is almost perfect in getting to the second ball.

Naturally, being more studious at the table, young Jake wouldn't count quite so fast. He is taller, more graceful, but can't reach any further, for Jake, the wizard, though a small man, had a wonderful reach.

He was a more versatile billiardist than his son, solely because he played more kinds of billiards—18.2 and 18.1. cushion caroms, the now extinct corner game, and was a brilliant three-cushion player. No doubt, young Jake would do any of them as well if he had to.

There are few cases of a son inheriting a gift to such a marked extent.

MUCH POOR RELIEF DONE

N. W. Health Society, Elks, Priscilla Club, And Doctors, Aid in Charity Work

The report of the public health nurse, Miss Eula Michael, for the month of March reveals a number of interesting items. The narrative report accompanying the statistical data tells of work done by various societies of the city and by doctors in caring for poor patients. The report follows:

"On March 13 a regional conference was held in St. Cloud. The suggestions at this conference were unusually helpful, especially for the school nurse.

There are seven families quarantined with scarlet fever. The cases have been very light and are scattered over town.

The Northwestern Health society paid for glasses for a mother of 15 children who could no longer see to sew. They are a great help to her in her work. Dr. Nelson examined her eyes free.

Dr. Nelson also examined a child's eyes free who even with glasses should be in a sight saving class. The Elks paid for the glasses.

The Health society paid the hospital bill for a child for whom Dr. Hermanson removed the tonsils. Dr. Hermanson gave his services.

Dr. Gerber has been advising as to feedings for an undernourished baby. The Priscilla club provided codliver oil and olive oil for the baby.

Ladies from the Methodist aid collected groceries for an old lady. Mrs. Shaw collected provisions for another old lady.

Out of the eight who attended the T. B. clinic two were classed as suspicious and one as positive.

The dentists very willingly gave of their time to another dental clinic. We had no clinic last year and the percentage of teeth needing attention this year was somewhat higher. The dentists said, however, that much more dental work has been done in comparison with the first year of the clinic. It also takes longer to examine the children now as many of the cavities are small. The percentages for each year are as follows: 1922, 88 per cent; 1923, 72 per cent; 1924, 70 per cent; 1926 83 percent. The Parochial school had the best record this year of 67 percent, the Whittier next with 72 per cent.

Total number visits to homes, 200. Total number of visits, 228. Nursing care total 13. Instruction demonstration total, 82. Communicable diseases 12, visits for poor relief, 16. Miscellaneous calls, 105.

Dental clinics, 8, patients, 1,710. T. B. clinic, one, 8 patients.

Educational work, classes and conferences, 2, number of patients, 23, with 8 meetings. Nutritional classes held, 2, 18 pupils, 6 meetings.

Talks other than to school children, 1; articles written, 1; maternal literature distributed, 3; infant literature, 3, posture literature, 20. Other meetings attended, 3; office interviews, 27; individual letters, 3; hours in office, approximately 40.

VETERAN OF '98 IN LAST RITES

A. P. Nelson, Spanish-American War Hero, to be Buried in Evergreen Cemetery Thursday

IN FIVE MAJOR BATTLES

Was Faithful Employe of Post Office Here For 10 Years, Well Liked by Associates

The funeral of A. P. Nelson, who passed away at Exira, Ia., on Easter Sunday morning, will be held from the Norwegian-Danish Lutheran church, at Oak street and Bluff Ave., on Thursday afternoon, 2 p. m.

"Andy," as he was affectionately known by his fellow-workers in the post office here, succumbed to heart and kidney trouble on his way home from Florida, where he with his family had spent the winter. They left here in August, making the trip by car. Mr. Nelson felt that the climate there would be of benefit to him, but he failed rapidly, especially of late, and on the return trip made the journey to Exira by train, accompanied by his son Milton, while the rest of the family drove by automobile, and continued to Brainerd.

He died on Easter Sunday morning, April 4, at 2:15 a. m., before his family could reach his bedside. They arrived in the afternoon, having driven there from Brainerd.

The deceased was born in Denmark, on Dec. 23, 1872, and came to America in 1890, going first to Mankato, where he lived for several years. He has lived in Brainerd for over 20 years. In 1906 he married Hannah Pederson, in Brainerd, and to them were born seven children, five of whom survive him, with their mother. They are Emil, Earl, Milton, Gladys, and George.

He is also survived by his stepfather and his mother, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Christjansen, of Northeast Brainerd, four half-sisters, Mrs. Christ Anderson of Duluth, Mrs. Ben Nelson, of Moline, Mrs. Emil Engstrom and Mrs. A. A. Ludwig, of Brainerd, and a half-brother, Nels Christiansen, of Merrifield.

Mr. Nelson was a veteran of the Spanish-American war, a member of the 36th Volunteer U. S. Infantry, and served in the Philipines, taking part in five principal engagements, and a number of skirmishes. He had very good citations for his service in this war. Just before being mustered out, he received an injury to his hip, when as a member of a wagon train he went to quell a disturbance among the mules of the train, which were thrown into frenzy by the firing of the Filipinos.

He was one of the most faithful workers of the local post office force, pleasant in his dealings, and highly esteemed by his fellow workers. He had been on the force for about 10 years. Prior to that time, he conducted a photographic studio in the city.

The deceased was a member of the Worth Bagley Camp, U. S. W. V., of St. Paul, of which Carl Adams, A. L. Mampel, J. F. Elkins, and Rev. E. A. Cooke are also members as Spanish-American war veterans. The veterans in the city will attend the funeral in a body. He was also a member of the Danish-American Brotherhood, the Ancient Order of United Workmen, and of the Norwegian-Danish Lutheran church.

The remains will lie at the church from 12 o'clock noon on Thursday until the time of the funeral, 2 p. m., and friends desiring to do so may view them between those hours. Rev. O. L. Bolstad will officiate. Interment will be at Evergreen cemetery.

The heartfelt sympathy of the community is extended to the sorrowing family.

COMMUNITY SPIRIT IS ROTARY TOPIC

O. M. Wanvig is Speaker of Day, Urges Building of Good Will Between Business Men

WINNIPEG MEN VISITORS

Club Members Hear First Hand Report of Pine-to-Palm Tour, Winnipeg to New Orleans

The Rotary club yesterday heard a fine talk by O. M. Wanvig, of Deerwood, on the subject, "Community Spirit." Mr. Wanvig used a number of actual instances in bringing his ideas to his hearers. He urged the building of good will, both between merchant and buyer, and between merchants themselves, as one of the greatest assets in business.

The speaker visualized himself as coming into a community to establish himself in business, and stated that together with his first aim, to attract the trade of the connoisseur, he would attempt to build up good will, an intangible asset often worth much in the sale of a business. He used several illustrations from the nearby territory in enforcing his ideas.

Among the visitors present at the meeting were A. H. Allardyce and Mr. Martin, of the Winnipeg Tribune, guests of R. R. Gould. Mr. Allardyce spoke regarding the Pine-to-Palm tour of fifty cars of Winnipeg business men, from that city to New Orleans, which tended to show the possibilities of year-round travel in the north country.

Mr. Allardyce told of the wonders of northern Minnesota and Manitoba, and of the efforts being put forth to draw the attention of tourists.

W. C. Cobb called the attention of the club members to the program for night school students at the high school on Tuesday, April 13, at which time the diplomas will be presented to the graduates. Ernest Butler introduced the visitors at the luncheon, and made special mention in welcoming E. O. Webb back after an absence in the south.

Two new members were welcomed into the club, E. F. Gates and B. Perry Newton. R. T. Campbell made the speech of welcome, outlining the objects of Rotary, and some of the salient features of the organization.

Swedish Bethany Aid

The ladies aid of the Swedish Bethany church will meet on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Theo. Nesheim, 815 South Seventh street. Mrs. Nesheim and Mrs. Nelson will entertain. Visitors are welcome. All members are urged to be present.

CITY FINANCES ARE CONSIDERED

City Treasurer Richard Ilse Is Main Speaker at League of Women Voters Meeting

GIVES FRANK DISCUSSION

Particular Interest Was Shown in Administration of "Poor Fund"

The city treasurer, Richard Ilse, paid the ladies the compliment of laying before them the condition of the city's finances and giving a full and frank discussion of the same, at the League of Women Voter's meeting at the Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday afternoon. As the meeting was held in the billiard hall, on account of a called meeting of business men in the parlors, a blackboard was available and the amount in each city fund was placed on the board as the treasurer read them off.

Particular interest was shown in the administration of the "poor fund" and many questions were asked concerning it. No resolutions were passed, as it was felt that further investigation was necessary before action could wisely be taken.

Before the subject of finances was taken up, Miss Genevieve Flannagan reviewed an interesting article on taxation, which brought out the fact that however much we may object to taxes, they were far lower than would be the cost of supplying police and fire protection, education and good roads by individual effort.

As the time was so short for the general questions on city government, they were answered without discussion, but those present felt that the afternoon had been profitable because of a much clearer understanding that all received concerning the financial condition of the city.

EFFORTS MADE TO GET THIRD TRIAL

M. E. MATTSON TWICE CONVICTED OF SECOND DEGREE MURDER

Fargo, N. D., April 7.—(UP) — Efforts to secure a third trial for M. E. Mattson, twice convicted of second degree murder, were made today.

Mattson, former janitor at the Grand Forks auditorium, was accused of performing an illegal operation on Miss Mabel Anderson, 17 year old Grand Forks waitress. She was found dead on an old couch in the basement of the auditorium.

Ready for sentence today Mattson's attorneys planned to petition for a third trial, alleging that the trial judge left his bench during arguments of the state's attorney. A jury found Mattson guilty and fixed the penalty at 10 years.

A previous jury had prescribed 20 years.

DOUGLAS ROBINSON MISSING FROM SCHOOL

Washington, April 7.—(UP)—Advised that his son Douglas, 21, was missing from Harvard university since last Thursday, Assistant Secretary of the Navy Theodore Douglas Robinson left here by train today for Boston. He had planned to fly there but was counselled against this, due to threatening air conditions.

Mrs. Robinson, the boy's mother, had preceded the secretary to Boston and had advised him about the boy while the elder Robinson was en route home from a six weeks trip to the Canal Zone and the Virgin Islands.

Robinson got into Washington this forenoon after having arranged before hand to have planes ready at Anacosta near here.

Captain Galbraith, director of naval intelligence, accompanied the secretary with a view of aiding if possible in the hunt for the Harvard lad, who is a grand nephew of the late President Roosevelt.

Boston, April 7.—(UP)—The local police were advised today that Douglas Robinson, 21 year old son of the assistant secretary of the navy, was missing from his rooms at Harvard University.

The bureau of missing persons would not divulge whether it had reason to believe young Robinson was in this city or whether the report received here was one generally sent to eastern cities.

Cambridge, Mass., April 7.—(UP)—Harvard college authorities announced this afternoon they had located Douglas Robinson, 21 year old freshman and son of Theodore D. Robinson, assistant secretary of the navy, who had been reported missing.

James D. Seymour, secretary of the university for information, stated Robinson, whose father was preparing to come to Boston to seek him had returned to his Cambridge residence.

The student had been in New York the last five days to consult a physician, Seymour said.

RALLYING TENDENCIES IN STOCKS

New York, April 7.—(UP)—Rallying tendencies which characterized industrial shares during the two preceding sessions were checked today by lack of enthusiasm about the trade outlook noticeable in weekly steel reviews. These pointed to indications of shrinking demand in many districts and attached considerable importance to breaks in pig iron prices.

After displaying a fairly good tone through the morning Steel common and other leading industrials turned downward following publication of the summaries.

Selling pressure was renewed in many sections of the list and prices closed at substantial recessions from the day's highs.

The market closed irregular.

FIRST TEST OF LEGALITY IN SELLING TONIC BEER

Indianapolis, Ind., April 7.—(UP)—The first test of legality of selling the new tonic beer in Indiana may start before night.

Reports were received from Gary that the Central Drg company was to receive a carload of 1,000 cases of the new beer today.

E. H. Schumaker, chief of the Indiana Anti-Saloon league, called a conference of the league's executive staff to consider action. If a jury decides the beer can be used as a beverage, its possession and sale is illegal under the state bone dry law, Schumaker contends.

LOVE OF AFFLICTED BROTHER DROVE HIM TO FORGE CHECKS

St. Paul, April 7.—(UP)—It was for love of his brother that Dr. Max R. Schneller, late of the German Red Cross, passed $500 worth of worthless checks.

"If you don't send money I'll commit suicide," his deaf mute brother, lviing in Germany, wrote Dr. Schneller. He told of a life of poverty due to his affliction.

With his own family at Mott, N. D., in destitute circumstances, Dr. Schneller turned to forgery for aid. He lost a personal fortune of $60,000 during the world war.

Today he waived preliminary examination and was bound over to district court.

"Me and the boy friend"

You know them, bless their hearts. A pair of youngsters, really, in spite of their self-reliant air and their fast-vanishing teens. The girl—slim, clear-eyed, merry; the boy—flippant, a bit arrogant, full of secret, earnest plans for success.

They like each other. They go to the movies together, dance, quarrel a bit. They don't believe in early marriages. But her eyes shine when she speaks of him. "Me and the boy friend."

One of these days, suddenly, they'll be grown up. Man and wife, those fearless youngsters. A home to plan, life to face. A budget, a savings account, economies.

They'll make mistakes, but they'll learn quickly. She'll begin to be canny in the spending of money—to question prices and values. She'll begin to read about the things she plans to buy, to find out all she can about them. She'll become a regular reader of advertisements.

They'll help her to become the capable, wise housewife she wants so much to be. They'll tell her what clothes are best and what prices to pay for them. They'll tell her about the foods to buy, the electric appliances, the linoleums and draperies. They'll help her, as the advertisements in this newspaper can help you.

And she'll meet her responsibilities and fulfill her duties easily and well. She won't become a tired, flustered, inefficient drudge. Because her home will be modern, attractive, well-run, she'll keep young—through the speedy years she'll retain much of that shining-eyed, merry freshness. She and the "boy friend."
